REQUIREMENTS: The final grade in this course is based on the student's performance on a mid-term exam (optional), a final exam, and a short paper (10 percent). The paper is due at the time of the final exam. The mid-term and final are all-essay exams. If the student elects to take the mid-term, the mid-term exam counts 40 percent and the final exam 50 percent. If the student elects to take only the final, the final exam counts 90 percent. The final exam will be on December 11, 10:30 - 12:30.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY: Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated in this course. Any incident of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating and plagiarism will be grounds for assignment of an “F” for the course, in addition to any penalties the university might impose. Such incidents will be handled in accordance with the relevant guidelines set forth in the “Code of Student Conduct and Discipline” in the Undergraduate Catalog.

DISABILITY STATEMENT: The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information, consult the Office of Disability Accommodation website at www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact the ODA by phone at 940/565-4323.
